

Pallet Cleaning Service

Many companies think their contaminated pallets are destined for the landfill.

Service Recycling's extensive cleaning routine allows these pallets to have a second chance in the industry.

Pallets come to us with varying levels of contamination, including food products, dust, mold and more.

Our thorough cleaning services allow for a superior clean.

From there, pallets are dried and repaired to be redistributed.

